IN announcing our Clean Sweep Sale, which begins Monday, we do so with full confidence that this is the most important sale of the summer season. Former Clean Sweep Sales have proven conclusively that these sales carry out fully the idea intended—which is to get rid of present styles—having very little consideration for regular prices or real worth of merchandise affected. We call particular attention to the way sales are conducted. All garments and other items bear their original prices in addition to the Clean Sweep tags.

OUR present sale offers you the most immense stock of women's apparel that ever entered into a summer Clean Sweep Sale. There is no garment, of whatever character, that cannot be selected now at a Clean Sweep reduction. We also want to remind you that this is not ordinary merchandise you have choice from but garments selected for their superior style and real worth—in other words, garments that come up to "The White House" standard. Besides ready to-wear, attention is directed to Clean Sweep reductions in dress accessories.

Clean Sweep of Summer Dresses

Our big stock of summer dresses is probably the most important part of Clean Sweep Sale. Every summer dress is included in this sale. Gingham, lawns, dimities, tissues, cotton voiles, cotton foulards, lingerie, linens, marquisettes, foulards, messalines, allover embroideries, chiffons, laces, nets.

Absolutely everything—from the little lawn and gingham dresses for morning and house wear to exquisite costumes for evening. Even our beautiful imported dresses are included. It is impossible to do more than note the reductions with a word or two of description on the Extra Specials, but you may be certain that anything you desire in a summer dress will be found in the Clean Sweep Sale at a reduced price.
